

Workshop "Strengthening Community Resilience in an Evolving Security Landscape"

Agenda

Date: January 24, 2024

Location: State Administration School, Raina blvd. 4, Riga

Registration compulsory: register here

Event language – English with simultaneous translation into Latvian

Workshop Sessions

10:00 AM - 10:15 AM: Opening Remarks by LAPAS

- Welcome and introduction by Inese Vaivare, LAPAS director
- Ilze Doškina, Baltic - American Freedom Foundation (BAFF) regional director
- Introduction of Mr. Kyle King (Crisis Lab) and the workshop's objectives

10:15 AM - 11:00 AM: The Evolving Security Landscape and Its Impact on Communities

- Presentation and discussion led by Mr. Kyle King
- Analysis of global security trends
- Discussion on the effects of these changes on community resilience

11:00 AM - 11:45 AM: Overview of NATO Resilience and Discussion on Baselines

- Detailed presentation by Mr. King
- Exploration of NATO's resilience baselines
- Relevance to community preparedness

11:45 AM - 12:15 PM: Systems Thinking in Community Resilience

- Presentation and interactive session led by Mr. Kyle King
- Role of systems thinking in enhancing community resilience
- Integrating systems thinking into resilience planning

12:15 PM - 12:45 PM: Lunch Break

12:45 PM - 1:30 PM: Applying Baselines at the Community Level - Introducing Community Lifelines

- Detailed exploration of implementing resilience baselines
- Introduction to the Community Lifelines concept
- Presentation by Mr. Kyle King

1:30 PM - 2:15 PM: Group Discussion - Identifying Key Issues for Communities

- Facilitated breakout sessions to discuss community-specific challenges
- Collaborative development of strategies and solutions

2:15 PM - 3:00 PM: Closing Remarks

- Summary and key takeaways led by Mr. King
- Discussion on the implementation of learned strategies
- Final thoughts and closure of the workshop

The workshop is a part of the Latvian Civic Alliance and Latvian Platform for Development Cooperation (LAPAS) project “Civil society leaders for societal resilience and regional security”, which is provided with the support of the Swedish Institute. This program is possible thanks to funding from the Baltic-American Freedom Foundation.